How to Make Money with CashCrate

What is CashCrate? CashCrate is a free program that pays you for completing offers, surveys, and referring others. There are no fees to join, no fees to participate, and no fees to receive payment.

Join CashCrate for Free Here: <http://cashcrate.com/313475>

It is a totally free program.

There aren't many totally free programs on the internet that allow you to make money. There are a lot of survey and offer sites that will pay you to refer others to the program, but most of these referral fees are a one-time only payment.

CashCrate is different. Once someone is referred to the program through you, you will receive a commission off all the money they earn for as long as they earn it. This comes at no cost to them.

What's more, CashCrate is a 2-Tiered referral system. This means that you will also receive a commission on the money earned by all the referrals your referrals make.

How much of a commission? Commissions start at 20% for those you refer and 10% of those they refer, plus a $3 bonus when those you refer reach $10 in earnings. Those commissions increase as the number of people you refer increases. The more you refer, the more you make!

Is it Network Marketing?

Is this a network marketing, MLM, or multilevel marketing opportunity? Actually, no. A 2-tiered affiliate program is not technically or legally considered a network marketing opportunity.

Plus, there is nothing for you to sell or buy. CashCrate pays you to complete offers. They do not pay you to sell things.

In short, CashCrate is a rare program in that it is free, it doesn't require your credit card information, doesn't require you to sell anything, and will pay you for completing free surveys and offers.

There isn't a better program online.

Getting Started with CashCrate

In order to start making money with CashCrate, the first thing you need to do is join!

Join CashCrate for Free Here: <http://cashcrate.com/313475>

Before joining, however, take a few moments to create a separate email account at a free provider such as gmail. You will receive offers and advertisements from some of the offers you subscribe to, and you don't want these to clog your main email account.

After joining, immediately go in and participate in free offers or surveys. Do at least $10 worth of surveys and offers. This will do two things for you:

CashCrate's minimum payout amount is $10, so this allows you to get a check your first month

-and-

You are now familiar with how the surveys and offers work, so you can recommend them to others

You will want to encourage all those you refer to get to this first $10 level as well. When they do, you personally get a $3 bonus.

Make sure you stop by CashCrate every day for a few minutes to do a survey or two, and complete an offer or two. This will keep your awareness of how the program works up to date and will allow you to earn some money.

Most of CashCrate's offers are totally free, but some do require a purchase. You are not required to complete any given offer or survey, but if you are planning an online purchase, it makes sense to check your CashCrate offers first to see if you qualify for an incentive.

Some of the offers require you to sign up for a free trial subscription to a service such as Netflix. If a credit card is required for an offer, CashCrate tells you before you even go to the site. This way you can avoid those offers if it makes you uncomfortable.

Join CashCrate for Free Here: <http://cashcrate.com/313475>

After you have played around with the system and at least qualified for your first commission check, you can feel free to start to refer others!

Please note: It is not a requirement of CashCrate that you earn any money before you start to refer others. It is, however, my opinion that in order to refer a product you should be familiar with how it works. This is the way that I conduct business, and the way I recommend you do as well. It will only help you in the long run.

If You Need Help

If at any time you need help with CashCrate in any way; have a question about payment, need suggestions for gaining more referrals, want to see if a trial offer is worth it; CashCrate provides excellent customer service support.

(Hint: If you join CashCrate <http://cashcrate.com/313475> now you can log into your account and see what I am talking about)

In addition to having a customer support area to contact the company directly, CashCrate also has two other features that are unique in the online surveys and offers world:

User Forums

You have the ability to chat with thousands of other CashCrate members in an online user forum.

Learn from those who have hundreds or thousands of referrals! Find out tricks and ask any questions you can think of.

Email Feature

Another very unique feature is the email feature. You can email the person who sponsored you (which would be me if you sign up for CashCrate) and you can email any of those you have sponsored, either as a group or individually.

It is important to note that you do not have access to their private email addresses, but that CashCrate will contact them on your behalf. It's also important to note that you can see their user ID on CashCrate, and can even see how much money they have made in the previous month, but you do not have their specific name available to you.

This allows all users to feel safe contacting one another.

These excellent help features make the CashCrate community valuable and profitable for everyone. CashCrate owners have caught on to the fact that the more they help you, the more they receive as well.

How to Get Referrals

You can make some good, occasional money on CashCrate from simply doing all the offers and taking surveys on a daily basis. But you can make even more money by referring your friends.

Some people will choose to join CashCrate and never refer a single person. That's fine! Others will refer one or two friends, and enjoy a little extra commission each month. But some people will refer hundreds, or even thousands of others, which will allow them to earn hundreds of dollars each month.

Whatever you choose to do is fine. The most important thing you can do to earn money with CashCrate is to make it your goal to earn at least $10 in offers or surveys that you personally do on a monthly basis. This makes sure that you get a check. If you do not earn at least $10 in offers, surveys, and referrals, your money is simply held over until the next month.

So how do you get referrals? There are many ways to do it. There is, in fact, only one rule when it comes to gaining referrals: Don't SPAM.

Do not send unsolicited emails or offers to people (even those you know) who have not requested the information from you. This is SPAM. If you do so, your CashCrate account will be closed and you could face criminal fines, as spamming is illegal.

If, however, someone wants more information, and requests it from you, that is fine. It is also alright to advertise CashCrate in places that allow you to advertise.

Word of Mouth

The first thing you should do to gain referrals is to tell all your friends and family about CashCrate.

Please note: Do not have them sign up on your computer, or a computer you have used to access your CashCrate account. This can mess up the cookies enabled on the computer and will make the CashCrate computer think you are trying to duplicate your own account. These referrals will not count. Instead, have your friends and family sign up on their own computers.

After joining CashCrate, you will be provided with a unique URL to give to others. For instance, my unique URL is <http://cashcrate.com/313475> . Anytime someone clicks on that URL and signs up for CashCrate, they are my referral, forever.

You'll want to have your friends and family join CashCrate through your unique URL.

Do not use mine!

You can talk to your friends and family in person, on the phone, or through instant message or chat. In fact, as you meet new people in instant message or chat, you can ask them if they've heard of CashCrate yet.

Email Signature

Your email signature line is the absolute best way for you to gain referrals. Set up your signature to include your unique CashCrate URL and a little blurb about CashCrate.

Examples:

“Free to join! No fees! Get paid for your opinion and to take offers! Join CashCrate Today! <http://cashcrate.com/313475>”

“Are you looking to earn some extra money? Tired of all the opportunities that want you to pay to sign up? This one is free! <http://cashcrate.com/313475>”

“I earn money every month with this FREE opportunity! Learn how you can too! <http://cashcrate.com/313475>”

“You don't have to spend money to make money! Make money every month with CashCrate! <http://cashcrate.com/313475>”

“No sales, no pyramid schemes, no start up fees! Just real money every month for taking surveys, offers and telling your friends! Find out how!

<http://cashcrate.com/313475>”

You can make up anything you feel is catchy to include in your email signature. You may even want to switch your signature around every week or two to keep it fresh and interesting.

Yahoo Groups & Facebook Groups

Once you have your email signature line in place, join some Yahoo groups and Facebook groups pertaining to either free offers, or, more importantly, to hobbies or interests that you personally have.

The key here is to be active. Ask and answer questions about the topic at hand, but NEVER mention CashCrate. Your email signature line will do that for you!

If you mention CashCrate it could be viewed as spam. Instead, provide valuable insight into whatever community you are involved in. This will allow other members to get to know you, and they will want to participate in programs (especially FREE programs) that you are involved in.

Message Boards and Forums

Again, the key here is to join different message boards and forums pertaining to whatever interests you have. Make sure your forum allows signature lines, and set up a CashCrate blurb in your signature line.

Participate! Participate! Participate!

Try and post 4-5 messages per board per week to stay active in promoting CashCrate. Again, do not talk specifically about CashCrate, let your signature line do that. Instead, provide useful content to the message board.

Classified Ads

Another method to use to get the word out about CashCrate is to use classified ads. A favorite place to post is Craigslist, but be careful of where you place your ad. You can place it in the services category, but not in many other spots.

Personally, I use US Free Ads for my classified ads. Despite its name, you can only place a couple free ads. This site has high traffic however, and even if you only place a couple ads, it's worth it.

I pay the $9 or so a month to post unlimited ads. I try and get an ad up every day about CashCrate and I've gotten dozens of referrals from my US Free Ads listings in the last month alone.

<http://www.stay-a-stay-at-home-mom.com/classified-ads.html>

Offline Marketing

Even though CashCrate is an online program, do not think you cannot advertise it offline. Printing out business cards or fliers can bring in hordes of referrals in your offline area.

Have a supply of business cards (you can get them free for just the cost of shipping at Vista Prints <http://www.stay-a-stay-at-home-mom.com/vista-prints.html>) on you at all times to pass out to new people you meet. Make sure your unique URL is on the cards, and a little blurb about the program.

If you are currently in sales of any kind: your own product, party plan companies, eBay sales, etc; include a business card or flier about CashCrate with your purchases for your customers to see.

Think outside the box!

Blogging

If you currently have a blog, make regular posts about how much fun CashCrate is. Scan your checks and update your readers on a monthly basis with your increased earnings.

If you do not currently blog, you can set up a free blog at WordPress or Blogger, among other places online. Just make sure that you write frequent posts (2-3 times per week, at least) that will keep your readers returning, and try not to make every single post about CashCrate. That will make it boring!

Join CashCrate for Free Here: <http://cashcrate.com/313475>

Article Marketing

A very popular way to advertise online is through article marketing. This is where you write up a product review or article about a specific product, generally between 500-800 words, and submit it to article directories.

You cannot come out and make an ad, but you can include your referral ID in the box at the bottom of the article, listing you as the author.

These articles can then be picked up by people who need content for their website, blog or newsletter. Visitors from all over will read your article and come to your CashCrate website.

Ezine Advertising

You can also pay to have your advertisement read in different ezines. An ezine is an electronic magazine, also referred to as a newsletter or email list.

Ezines exist for every topic under the sun. Find a niche market that you think will need extra money from CashCrate, such as stay at home moms, college students, or retired persons. (Note: these are just examples; choose a niche market that you know and feel is good for you.)

For a fee, which varies depending on how many subscribers a specific publisher has, you can send out an ad about CashCrate.

Mini Ebooks

What you are reading now is called a Mini Ebook. It is an ebook that is available for downloading for free, in order to promote something specific. In this case, it is to promote CashCrate.

By writing this ebook, I am hoping that you will want to join CashCrate <http://cashcrate.com/313475> and that you will do so by clicking one of my convenient blue links, which will take you to my unique URL.

I am also providing secrets and training in this mini ebook designed to get you to want to earn money too. The more money you earn, the more money I earn! And since it is all free, this is a completely win-win situation.

You can also create a mini ebook like the one you are reading right now. Please do not copy my work word-for-word, but you can take these ideas and rewrite them to fit your own ebook.

You then promote your ebook and let viral marketing take its course!

If you don't want to create your own ebook, feel free to use this ebook to give to others. For your sake, however, make sure they have signed up for CashCrate with your unique URL before you give them this ebook, so that they do not inadvertently sign up under me instead of you. Make sure you are getting credit!

The best part about a mini ebook is the training you can give to others. There is more to making money with this program than just to sign someone up and let them go. They need to know HOW to make money. So pass this ebook on to those you refer.

Create a Website

If you find that you like internet marketing, and would like to take it a step further, the next thing to do would be to create a website.
